Camp Kakankote,

8th December 1909.

My dear Sir,

I beg to inform that the temporary Telegraph Office at Karapur has been closed. We are therefore 20 miles away from the nearest Telegraph Office- viz- Heggadadevanakote. As telegraph messages have to be sent frequently daily to Mysore and Bangalore, we are thus placed in a difficult position.

I would therefore beg the favour of your kindly arranging to establish Telephone communication between Kakankote and Heggadadevanakote. There is already Telephone communication between Kakankote and Karapur, and what I want is that the latter place may be connected with Heggadadevanakote. The distance between these two places is about 12 miles, and they are already connected by a wire. An additional wire and a telephone apparatus at Heggada-

Heggadadevanakote are all that is necessary to put us in telegraphic communication with the outside world. I understand that the additional wire and the apparatus could be put up in a couple of days.

I venture to commend the matter to your immediate consideration.

I remain, Sir,

Yours most faithfully,

To

T. Ananda Rao, Esquire, B.A.,

Dewan of Mysore.
